Sub: Renewal of National Referees licence upto 2024 registered with Indian Weightlifting Federation.

Dear All,

All stakeholders are hereby informed that Referees registered from States and Departments with Indian Weightlifting Federation have to deposit the renewal licence fee upto the year 2024 @Rs. 4,000/- each, which has to be deposited with Indian Weightlifting Federation Union Bank of India Account through respective State Association / Department bank accounts (as a single entry) within a time frame of 31st July 2021.

All stakeholders are further advised to intimate the secretariat office of Indian Weightlifting Federation regarding those referees of its State and Department who passed away or not interested to renew their licence so that their names will be deleted from list of registered referees in the Federation database.

Those referees who chose to stay in registered technical officials list and who will not pay the Referee licence fee latest by 31st July 2021 will be levied a penalty of Rs. 1,000/- per year w.e.f. 1.8.2021 onwards.

It is further submitted that only those referees are able to participate in State Championships / Selection trials (States & Departments) and Departmental Games who have renewed their licence upto 2024. All States and Departments are advised to send the list of Referees who will be selected by them to officiate during State Championships / Selection trials (States & Departments) and Departmental Games atleast 10 days before the start of such Championships.

Kindly take a note of it and adhere compliance.

Yours Sincerely,

[Sandeep Yadav]
Secretary General
